Regulatory information at your fingertips

Get your regulatory questions answered instantly—across 54 jurisdictions—with Vertafore’s premier, single-source online information resource for insurance and securities regulatory rules.

Features you need

Regulatory reference tool

Obtain all the up-to-date information you need, structured by state or by topic in one place, instead of searching through each state website.

- Appointment rules
- Securities registration requirements
- Current licensing renewal forms, fees, payment options, and due dates
- Mailing addresses for submitting documents
- Instructions for obtaining new licenses and making changes to an existing license
- Pre-license education, continuing education, and exam requirements

Lines

We work with a broad spectrum of carriers and lines:

- Property and casualty
- Life, health, and annuity products
- Securities
- Adjuster
- Credit
- Limited lines
- Surplus lines

Support from regulatory experts

Our expert customer support professionals deliver fast answers to your compliance questions.

- Hotline access when you need an expert.
- Quick links connect to state departments of insurance, producer lookups, state insurance statutes, and rules and regulations pages.

"Sircon helps us avoid non-compliance fines through the use of e-Pal where we can look up all the regulations."
